Earlington Happenings.

News Notes - Personal Paragraphs and Other Doings at Home Worthy of Special Mention.

Hopkins County Fair, August 28-31.

The crops in this section—especially corn—are just booming.

"The Winning Star" is a "spot cash" winner.

A Cargo of Humdurgin wares—split-bottom chairs and hickory-baskets—passed through our streets last Friday afternoon.

The ladies of Earlington and Hopkins county will find J. M. Victory & Co.'s shoes comfortable, durable, stylish and cheap.

Oh, the rain, the beautiful rain! And yet the chronic grumblers are crying, too much, too much!

If you wish a remedy to bring the flush of youth to your cheeks, new vigor to your system and make you strong and well take Dr. Sawyer's Ukatine. St. Bernard Drug Store.

Where are you going, my sweet, pretty maid? Going a-blooming, sir, she said.

The people of Earlington should inspect J. M. Victory and Co.'s stock of clothing and shoes, and compare their prices before buying.

Owing to the "trash-movers" of late, Col. Robert Wood has been compelled, this week, to exhume the sewerage pipe on Railroad Street, near the depot, and remove obstructions.

Thousands testify to the wonderful results of Dr. Sawyer's Ukatine in building up and renewing the debilitated and broken down constitution. St. Bernard Drug Store.

All kinds of stoves, grates and castings cheap at "The Winning Star."

The thirteenth annual announcement of the Hopkins County Fair is published in to-day's issue of THE BEE, and fully sets forth the leading features of the great fair to commence August 28th. To be appreciated, it should be read from start to finish.

J. M. Victory and Co. are offering bargains in their shoe and clothing departments. Call and be convinced.

The Madisonville Machine Works who have an advertisement in this paper, have made a change recently in ownership. Mr. Pitts retiring and Mr. Pate stepping into the partnership. The firm name is now Hanna & Pate. Consult their advertisement on editorial page.

The A. O. U. W. Picnic will be a success. Those intending to participate in the festivity will find J. M. Victory and Co., offering big bargains in shoes, slippers and clothing.

In the San Diego (Cal.) police court a few days ago a man testified that his wife gave him board in return for his services. There is evidently a well understood business policy in that man's household which will permit of no monkeying with the proprietor thereof.

If you want a stylish suit of clothes or a pair of shoes J. M. Victory & Co. will save you money. They are offering great inducements in these departments.

Dudley Bishop, one of the best colored barbers that ever visited Earlington, and for the past nine or ten months an attaché of Geo. Alexander's shop, has purchased an entire tonsorial outfit and located permanently in Madisonville. His shop is located near the Hustler office, and we bespeak for him a liberal share of the patronage of that city.

"Don't Tobacco Spit or Smoke Your Life Away." The truthful, startling title of a book about No-to-bac, the only harmless, guaranteed tobacco-habitué. If you want to quit and can't use "No-to-bac." Braces up nicotine nerves, eliminates nicotine poisons, makes weak men gain strength, weight and vigor. Positive cure or money refunded. Book at Drugstore, or mailed free. Address: The Smoking Remedy Co., Chicago, 49 Randolph St.; New York, 10 Spruce St. For sale by all Druggists.

If They Will When nobody We Can. won't do nothing now, it's mighty hard to get up a bright, sparkling newspaper. And then, when anything does happen to happen nobody won't say nothing about it—every one's as mute as mice; and should the reporter get an inkling that something is about to happen, or has really happened, those who ought to know can't tell more than half of it. Why not keep your eyes and ears wide open, and be "swift to hear, but slow to speak"—except to the reporter. Thus, with very little trouble on your part, you could aid the reporter in producing a sprightly paper; but if on the other hand you suppress what you do know, under a promise to "come over after a little and give all the pointers," and then not show up until publication day, may be not at all, the news gatherer is very often left in the "nine-hole."

Wanted.—A gentleman correspondent, by a lady of 29, of good appearance and good family. Gentleman preferred from 35 to 45. Address, C. M., Box 378, Evansville, Ind.

A Neat Calcul-

lation. spend four hours together and the lover takes or receives 200 kisses—low calculating—and each kiss last ten seconds, in five years time the lover would have 365,000 kisses, their lips would have been united for the space of forty-two days and six hours.

If you have tried many remedies and many doctors and are still debilitated and weak and discouraged, try Dr. Sawyer's Ukatine, and you will be cured. St. Bernard Drug Store.

Business and Our clever merchant, Mr. E. McLeod, as has been his custom for years, will visit Old Point Comfort again this season. This time, however, he intends combining business with pleasure—i. e., "kill two birds with one stone." In other words, Mr. McLeod will celebrate his nuptials while there, August 14th, and as sure as "Johnny cakes and honey go good together," he will, upon his return introduce to his many friends Mrs. McLeod, an accomplished lady of old "Virginia."

THE BEE extends congratulations in advance of the event.

To enrich and improve the quality of the blood, purify and brighten the complexion, impart a natural and pink color to the cheeks and lips and induce refreshing sleep use Dr. Sawyer's Ukatine. St. Bernard Drug Store.

A Relic of the 60's. presented to the Earlington Library, a few days since, to be added to its collection of curiosities, a handsome memento of the late war, consisting of a pine knot, about five inches in length and three inches in diameter, imbedded in the center of which was a grape shot. The piece was taken from the limb of a large pine tree growing on Kennesaw Mountain, and is in a fine state of preservation. Mr. Turner has in his possession other attractive relics which he intends contributing to the collection.

The best is what you want when you are in need of a medicine. That is why you should insist upon Hood's Sarsaparilla.

A nearer place can scarcely be found among the "haunts of business" than Geo. Alexander's Barber shop. It has been thoroughly overhauled—re-papered and re-arranged—and is a model of neatness from start to finish. George, himself, is a first-rate barber, while his assistant is an artist of the first magnitude. One shave by this man will tell you more in a minute than you could get out of a column article on the subject.

Messrs. Stodghill and Adcock are the decorators, and are proving themselves to be most efficient workmen along this line.

When you get ready to go to Old Point Aug 7th, don't forget a nice lunch.

Six weeks ago I suffered with a very sore cold; was almost unable to speak. My friends all advised me to consult a physician. Noticing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised in the St. Paul Volks Zeitung, I procured a bottle, and after taking it a short while was entirely well. I now most heartily recommend this remedy to anyone suffering with a cold. Wm. Keil, 678 Selby Ave., St. Paul, Minn. For sale by St. Bernard Drug Store, Earlington; Ben T. Robinson, Mortons Gap; George King, St. Charles.

There are many who will take advantage of the exceedingly low rates offered to Old Point Comfort to visit their native state, Virginia, and look on the scenes of childhood, bringing back so many fond recollections and pleasant memories.

Promptly at 9 o'clock, the members of this grand order will form in line at the Hall, and under the leadership of the St. Bernard Cornet Band, will march to the grounds.

All sister lodges have been invited, and a big crowd is expected from all over the county. This is probably the last, and surely no pains will be spared to make it the best of the festive season.

In the spirit and letter of the large bills already scattered broadcast, we will say: "Come early and stay late, and we will insure you a good time."

Tinware, crockery and fruit jars of every description at "The Winning Star."

A Beautiful Died—At her home in Barnesley, last Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Jno. Robinson. Mrs. Robinson was a member of the Baptist Church, and her life was doubtless that of a consistent Christian, the death-bed scene being a beautiful one—so cheering to the sorrowing relatives and friends that crowded around her bed. Almost with her last breath she sang that beautiful hymn: "I am going home to die no more."

In her death she leaves two small children, one only a few weeks old, a sorrowing husband and numerous relatives to mourn her demise; but they sorrow not as those who have no hope; but on the contrary, can live in a bright anticipation of a happy re-union on the other side.

Her remains were interred in the Earlington cemetery Friday afternoon, accompanied by a host of friends.

Pile! Pile! itching Pile! Symptoms—Mucous, intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue, tumor form, which often bleed, ulcerate, becoming very sore. Sawyer's Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At drugstore, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Sawyer & Son, Philadelphia.

A Sure Sign of Mr. Mike B. Long, our enterprising and wide-awake baker will soon begin the erection of a new bakery and bake oven, and will add another story on to the rear of his present building on Railroad Street, and will put in bath room, water closet, etc. Mr. R. P. Farnsworth has secured the contract for the brickwork and Mr. M. McCord, contractor of this city, has been awarded the contract for the wood work, etc. Mr. Long has been very fortunate in letting his contracts to the above named gentlemen, as they stand without a rival as being two of the best mechanics and most reliable contractors to be found in this section of the State.

Beckie's Astringent. The best salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chills, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by St. Bernard Drug Store.

Our latest advertisement from Dr. W. B. Gardiner, who, in company with Mr. Charlie Robinson, hied away to Colorado Springs, a few weeks ago, is that he is rapidly regaining his wanted health; that owing to the crowded condition at the spring, they have pitched their tent on the adjacent mountains. The atmosphere is cool and bracing, and the Doctor is unstinted in his praises of the present location and of the results already attained—says he can eat as much at one meal now, as he did in three, at home; and having equipped himself with new medical works, and all necessary appliances; besides being a student of Geology, he watches with interest the excavations made by gold-prospectors, who are daily at work; and in all the Doctor expects his present outing to prove of incalculable benefit to himself and his friend Robinson.

My little boy, when two years of age, was taken very ill with bloody flux. I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and luckily procured a bottle. I carefully read the directions and gave it accordingly. He was very low, but slowly and surely he began to recover, and is now as stout and strong as ever. I feel sure it saved his life. I never can praise the Remedy half its worth. I am sorry every one in the world does not know how good it is, as I do—Mrs. Lina S. Hinton, Grahamsville, Fla. For sale by St. Bernard Drug Store, Earlington; Ben T. Robinson, Mortons Gap; and George King, St. Charles.

The A. O. U. W. According to previous announcement, next Saturday, August 30, is to be the "gala day" of the season.

In addition to all the amusements incident to an occasion of the kind, stirring speeches will be delivered during the day by Jno. W. Baker, Grand Master Workman and J. E. Butler, State Lecturer.

Promptly at 9 o'clock, the members of this grand order will form in line at the Hall, and under the leadership of the St. Bernard Cornet Band, will march to the grounds.

All sister lodges have been invited, and a big crowd is expected from all over the county. This is probably the last, and surely no pains will be spared to make it the best of the festive season.

PIERCE'S CURE.

In all Bronchitis, Throat and Lung troubles Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery brings relief and a permanent cure. The way is open to the cure of Consumption if you suffer from Asthma, Bronchitis or Catarrh. Begin early with "Discovery" and a cure is certain.

English, Ohio Co., Tenn. Dr. J. C. PIERCE, 151 N. 3rd St., New York, N. Y. Dr. J. C. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery brings relief and a permanent cure. The way is open to the cure of Consumption if you suffer from Asthma, Bronchitis or Catarrh. Begin early with "Discovery" and a cure is certain.

Discovered as I was, I was cured by Dr. J. C. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I was cured of my Asthma, Bronchitis and Catarrh. I was cured of my Consumption. I was cured of my Throat and Lung troubles. I was cured of my Asthma, Bronchitis and Catarrh. I was cured of my Consumption. I was cured of my Throat and Lung troubles.

Indian Relics And Our old friend W. A. Toombs accompanied by his family, left here to-day for a week or ten days' outing. They go direct to the Richland neighborhood, some eight miles west here, where they will visit near relatives and old-time neighbors. While the women folks are enjoying a re-union, Toombs expects to literally "sit" that end of old Hopkins, "either in the heavens above, the earth beneath, or even under the earth," for anything that pertains to the "curious." Relics thus obtained will be placed in the Earlington Museum, which already contains a large collection from almost every quarter of the habitable globe.

Mr. Toombs will visit the place for the first time in seventeen years, since the day his nuptials were celebrated. His old friends could well afford to indulge in an old-fashioned "green corn dance," and not do violence to their most conscientious scruples.

C. W. Merriweather C. W. Merriweather, against whom serious charges have lately been made, is now at home, and wishes to set himself right before his people and the public at large. He came to THE BEE office early Tuesday morning, "armed and equipped" with the following bill of retraction, signed in the presence of Rev. E. A. White, and the accompanying publications:

CLEVELAND, OHIO, July 24, 1895. I, Robert S. Smith, do declare that I have said or do not say anything of the character of Prof. C. W. Merriweather to be false in every respect. It was done in a fit of jealous frenzy and when I was not at myself. I am very sorry for what I have said or do here or away from here that would in any way reflect on his character. I hereby, with my own hand, sign this bill of retraction of all I have said, or caused to be said, against him. He is, as far as I know, an honest and respectable gentleman. Signed by me the day and year first above written.

(Signed) R. S. SMITH. (Witness) E. A. WHITE.

"On Saturday last a special was published from Louisville to the effect that Robert S. Smith, of Cleveland, was in Louisville trying to locate his wife, who, the dispatch stated, had left home about ten days previous with Prof. C. W. Merriweather, a school teacher from southern Kentucky."

Prof. Merriweather is at present in this city and is the guest of Rev. Elam A. White, pastor of Cory M. E. Church on Central avenue. He was considerably surprised to read the charge from Louisville that he had run away with another man's wife. Incidentally the dispatch stated that Mrs. Smith and Merriweather had been traced to Columbus and then to Frankfort. Prof. Merriweather arrived in this city about two months ago and has not been out of it since. He has never been in Columbus and Frankfort in his life. He brands the entire dispatch as a falsehood from beginning to end and does not understand its animus. He is but indifferently acquainted with either Smith or his wife, having met them only two or three times—Cleveland Plain Dealer, July 24.

"Prof. C. W. Merriweather, colored, the man who was accused of running away from Cleveland, O., with the wife of R. G. Smith, also colored, was in the city yesterday on his way to his home at Earlington, Ky. Merriweather shows a written retraction from Smith of his charges."

Merriweather was visiting in Cleveland when Smith's wife disappeared. Smith at once came to the conclusion that his wife had eloped with Merriweather. He came to this city but could find no trace of the missing wife or of Merriweather. He then returned to his home in Cleveland, where he found Merriweather still at Rev. E. A. White's home. Merriweather read publications concerning the charges against him. The latter backed out completely. Merriweather said yesterday that he would have sued Smith, but the man had nothing.

Mrs. Smith is still among the missing, and no trace of her can be found. Her husband is of a jealous temperament, and has accused several men of running off with his wife. Smith fell from a street car in Cleveland a short time ago, and received injuries which cost the company $1,600. With this money he desired to open a saloon, and it is said that this is the reason his wife left him, as she is of a religious turn of mind. All of the parties connected stand high in colored circles.—Louisville Commercial, July 25.

Did You Ever Think That you cannot be well unless you have pure, rich blood? If you are weak, tired, languid and run down, it is because your blood is impoverished and lacks vitality. These troubles may be overcome by Hood's Sarsaparilla, because Hood's Sarsaparilla makes pure, rich blood. It is, in truth, the great blood purifier.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, sick headache, indigestion.

"OUR COURTNEY."

When the portals of life were opening Upon a bright career, With hope and youth commingled To charm and light his sphere, Just then, how sad, how sudden The sickle of death so keen Thrust in to part asunder The grain that yet was green. A friend, a better than Courtney, Were hard to find on earth; So full of friendship's greetings, An example of truth and worth. Faith he had in his fellows, Hope lent, too, his charm; Charity, fully developed, Gave strength to his able arm. Yesterday, joyous and laughing, Yarry words fell of joy; To-day we cover his body, The last of our noble, grand boy. The flowers we lay all about him He wore near his heart yesterday. A bouquet was ever his pleasure, And he wore them in such a neat way. Surely God will forgive all his errors, For faults he had very few; His talents were used to their limit, No selfish aim could imbue. Loving and loved he has parted For a time from the many who mourn, But time has in store for his loved ones The same fate and very same bourn. Like the lily that falls in the mid-day By the stress of the heat of the sun, So he faded away yet in his glory Ere his trials of life had begun. He has solved out the problem awaiting The crayon of every born man. And know just how joyous is heaven, How perfect is our Father's plan; But we miss, how much do we miss him The hosts of his friends will attest; That crowd round his bier to honor His clay while his soul is at rest. Let this cheer the hearts of his brothers: This shows us how God's fatherhood And the brotherhood are undivided, Show how kindly he is and how good. Farewell to your laugh, my dear brother, His echo yet rings in the vale. And hundreds will hear it forever When many fond memories fail. You will greet us with smile just as glad Of this sort. When we, too, shall follow you thence, And the loud hallooings pure singing Will wake us when our souls go from hence. You relentless, unyielding cold iron, Know not of the sorrow you bring When you rob us of those who are loving And leave in our bosoms a sting. Yours in a C. H. and P. J. A. PRENTICE.

MADISONVILLE.

Holloman Oats died last Saturday at Tyndall Ford.

Chas. Bourland's wife, who has been in a precarious condition is considered out of danger and is on the road to recovery.

S. H. Hanner will fill out pension vouchers at D. Martin & Son's furniture home, next Monday.

Dr. Bruce, a great lover of birds as well as fine horses, captured near Slougherville, last week what he took to be a genuine English mocking bird, but which proved afterwards to be nothing other than the bird that chirps but a few times in summer, commonly called the "Rain Crow." The bird died of grief a few days after reaching Madisonville, and the Dr. is without a singer.

The Hustler last week, in dispensing the news to the public was acting upon the advice of the scriptural injunction: "Let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth." On one page of the paper it praised the Wilson Bill, for not closing a single factory in the United States, but being the cause of new industries springing up everywhere and at present, there being scarcely a factory or foundry in the United States all the running on full time, and on another page of the same issue under the head of "Big Mills to Shut Down," it gives the intelligence that on account of the cheapness of lumber, the Henderson and Evansville saw mills will be forced to close down, which will throw a number of employees out of work, and will therefore work a necessary hardship. This is what the Republicans predicted would take place, if lumber was put upon the free list, which was the case in the Wilson Bill.

The closing down of the mills above mentioned will not only "work a hardship" among the employees of the mills, but will also work a hardship on the farmers, not only in Hopkins County, but in all the counties contiguous to Green and Warren Rivers.

Any portion of the Wilson Bill or any other bill that admits the products of foreign countries free of duty along side of the products of this country, will work a "necessary hardship" to the laborers of this country by closing down our industries and throwing our men out of employment. That is why all our industries need protection by a reasonable tariff.

Wm. Herndon has returned from college.

R. M. Williams is having a neat cottage erected on church street.

Messrs. Ted Phillips and B. W. Robinson were here Monday.

G. M. Davis left for Louisville Monday, to be gone several days.

Henry Davis and wife spent Sunday in the country.

Miss Verda Graddy is visiting in Christian county.

Charles Curtis, of Earlington, was here Monday.

Mr. John G. B. Hall, of Madisonville, passed through our town Monday.

Mr. Claude Hancock and lady, of Greenville, visited relatives here Sunday.

Tim Harrington, of Earlington, came to Mortons Gap Monday, to see his best girl.

Mr. Lucien Earle, of McPherson, Kan., paid us a pleasant visit one day recently.

Wm. Kimmons and A. W. Davis were in Madisonville Friday afternoon.

Rev. James Ezell and wife have returned from White Plains.

Messrs. J. T. Harris and B. T. Robinson and son attended the funeral services of Mrs. Owen Robinson, of Barnesley, last Friday.

Prof. T. H. Smith, of Madisonville, passed through town Monday.

The Mortons Gap base ball club went to Crabtree Sunday, where they played against a picked nine from the several surrounding towns, including Princeton, St. Charles, Dawson, etc. Our boys were again victorious, but by a small margin, the score standing 23 to 24 in favor of Mortons. We are very thankful to the Crabtree team for the hospitable manner in which we were treated. Quite a number from Mortons Gap and Barnesley witnessed the game, which at times was exciting. Come over, boys, and we will do you up in first-class style.
